The aims of scientology

(by L. Ron Hubbard, September 1965)

A civilization without insanity, without criminals and without war, where the able can prosper and honest beings can have rights, and where Man is free to rise to greater heights, are the aims of Scientology.

First announced to an enturbulated world in 1950, these aims are well within the grasp of our technology.

Nonpolitical in nature, Scientology welcomes any individual of any creed, race or nation.

We seek no revolution. We seek only evolution to higher states of being for the individual and for society.

We are achieving our aims.

After endless millennia of ignorance about himself, his mind and the universe, a breakthrough has been made for Man.

Other efforts Man has made have been surpassed.

The combined truths of fifty thousand years of thinking men, distilled and amplified by new discoveries about Man have made for this success.

We welcome you to Scientology. We only expect of you your help in achieving our aims and helping others. We expect you to be helped.

Scientology is the most vital movement on Earth today.

In a turbulent world the job is not easy. But then, if it were, we wouldn't have to be doing it.

We respect Man and believe he is worthy of help. We respect you and believe you too can help.

Scientology does not owe its help. We have done nothing to cause us to propitiate. Had we done so we would not now be bright enough to do what we are doing.

Man suspects all offers of help. He has often been betrayed, his confidence shattered. Too frequently he has given his trust and been betrayed. We may err, for we build a world with broken straws. But we will never betray your faith in us so long as you are one of us.

The sun never sets on Scientology.

And may a new day dawn for you, for those you love and for Man.

Our aims are simple if great.

And we will succeed, and are succeeding at each new revolution of the Earth.

Your help is acceptable to us.

Our help is yours.

Personal integrity

(by L. Ron Hubbard)

What is true for you is what you have observed yourself. And when you lose that, you have lost everything.

What is personal integrity? Personal integrity is knowing what you know. What you know is what you know and to have the courage to know and say what you have observed. And that is integrity and there is no other integrity.

Of course, we can talk about honor, truth, nobility—all these things as esoteric terms.

But I think they would all be covered very well if what we really observed was what we observed, that we took care to observe what we were observing, that we always observed to observe. And not necessarily maintaining a skeptical attitude, a critical attitude or an open mind—not necessarily maintaining these things at all—but certainly maintaining sufficient personal integrity and sufficient personal belief and confidence in self and courage that we can observe what we observe and say what we have observed.

Nothing in Scientology is true for you unless you have observed it and it is true according to your observation.

That is all.

Success Stories

Solo Auditor Course

I tended to believe that I obtained all the gains I could have got so far.

Nevertheless, I was mistaken because, as Ron had pointed out, and I learnt once again, there would be countless wins to acquire walking up the bridge towards higher levels of consciousness.

As long as I was exercising the Solo Sessions the boundaries my imagination had built were broken up the very moment I could connect my intimate essence, my innermost self.

At that time I felt very thrilled to settle in the recondite point from there I flow, from there my spirit springs endless. I identified that sensation as a sort of Nirvana state that can be enlarged more and more to the point where nothing can startle me. Moreover, I noticed that if I remain anchored at that point I do not need external things because I am infinitely resourceful and versatile as spiritual being.

Besides, meanwhile I was reflecting that my spiritual reserves are immense due to their own nature, I could also notice how the ARC to my-self was growing and growing. It was amazing to observe my thoughts making the needle floats because being my own auditor allowed me to watch the e-meter mirroring my spirit.

As I was witnessing how my thoughts swung in an even-tempered motion, coupled with the new level of understanding myself that I had achieved, my self-knowledge increased in a way that filled me with enormous delight.

Capitally, I achieved a lot of gains in this course but I choose one which resumes them all and I like to share with you: having the entire responsibility for everything I lived, I am aware that I can fix anything wrong that would still exist. Not to mention that I am moving forward with confidence and gratefulness for the tech that permits me to bring forth the illusions my inner self has arisen.

Finally, I want to say that I wish to turn my dreams into reality and when I see them become true I am sure I will be dreaming and pursuing other dreams to live.

OT I

I can't explain what happened, it is weird as if everything were the same, but I "passed to a different state", with wins that showed up out of the blue and without knowing how...

Each being has his/her side to improve because this level improved me in that indeed. Thanks to Ron, Bill, Max and Sole

Grade 4

"In this Grade, besides having and feeling the 4 EPs of the Grade, I felt that my evil and malicious levels disappeared and little by little my evil purposes went away from me, and the layer of valences and ways of being not nice in my past disappeared to only be me with my certainties and reality of my own me."
